The Task: or sub-task or sub, sub-task
  • motivating to the patient
  • the right one(s) for their impairments / task specificity

The Set-up: patient, therapist, objects and tools, environment
  • For challenge
  • For task specificity

Handling and cueing: voice, hands, feet, etc.
  • For impairments
  • For client tendencies (i.e. proximal, distal)
  • To encourage (facilitate)
  • To limit/stop (inhibit)