Membership Development Committee

Began work in late 2018 with Priority of:

Creating a broader target list of facilities able to host an increasing number of courses and seminars

1. New instructor recruitment & training
2. Increase distance learning opportunities for both members and non-members
3. Optimize the database of therapists interested in NDT for expanded NDTA marketing

To come: Social media, clinical research support, scheduling of and marketing for more NDTA courses & seminars.
Achieve 4000 NDTA 5-year membership goal by implementing plans to support five key strategic imperatives:
Looking for volunteers here to provide NDTA testimonials

Please consider providing your thoughts on what NDT has meant to you. We’ll ask 3 questions

- Why did you initially decide to make NDT part of your continuing education?
- What NDTA CE programs did you take & how did these impact your clients?
- Why should therapists working with NMD clients consider a NDTA 2-day seminar or certificate course?

Filming @ 5:30 PM Thursday; see Brad Lund
FLEX–SCHEDULE Pilot Program set to begin November 2019 in Chicago and Houston.

9 segments (8 on-site; 1 distance learning)

First 4 “Intro” segments can be taken independently and in any order for CEUs.

Segment 5 (Practicum I) begins pathway to C/NDT

C/NDT can be earned over up to 2 years.

Information will appear soon on NDTA site.

Please encourage participation!
Caroline Sigmon’s life changed on August 30th, 2017 when her husband, Steve, had a stroke. Steve was a picture of health. As a result of Steve’s stroke, he suffered from perceptual deficits, decreased insight to deficits, poor midline orientation, motor apraxia, inability to follow directions, excessive co-activation, an extremely abbreviated attention span and problem solving deficits.

Caroline was approached regarding Steve’s former physical therapist submitting her name for consideration for the NDTA Conference scholarship, she beamed with the potential to learn more and meet more therapists in the hopes of learning more to help Steve as well as others.
